Dear Fred

3. Mein Küster.

Mein Vogel sitzt in flammend Rot, so warm in seinem Nest, als ich ein meines Küsters Nest, auf meine Küster kam.

Und bin mir noch mein
Kopf und Fuß wuschelt mir oder ziet mir die Küster mein Küster drückt mich an die Herz.

Handwritten practice of the letter 'w' in cursive script, showing multiple strokes and variations.

A vertical strip of paper with a grid pattern, showing a series of diagonal lines forming a zigzag pattern. The strip is oriented vertically and appears to be a sample of a larger sheet. The grid consists of horizontal and vertical lines, with diagonal lines crossing them to create a series of small triangles. The paper has a slightly aged, yellowish tint.

Handwriting practice for the character 之 (possessive particle) on lined paper. The character is written multiple times in a cursive style, with red ink highlighting the starting stroke and the final flourish.
